

LATEST UPDATE

Evacuee Reception Site:

- Fort William Gardens (901 Miles St East) has been set up as an evacuee reception site.
- The province has hired evacuation specialists from Lumex.
- The Red Cross is also on hand and together they are offering wraparound services to anyone who has had to leave their community because of the fires. It doesn't matter where they're coming from.
- About 170 cots available, healthcare and anything else people might need
